

Dr M Sasikumar
Director (R & D)
CDAC

Dr M Sasikumar graduated from IIT Madras (now Chennai) and did his post-graduation from IISc Bangalore followed by Doctorate from BITS, Pilani.

He has been with CDAC Mumbai for over 20 years, and is currently Director (R&D) at the corporate office, consolidating R&D activities across all CDAC centres.

He was earlier heading the Artificial Intelligence, Educational Technology and Open Source Software divisions at CDAC Mumbai.

He has ideated and guided a number of software development projects, been a faculty in a number of courses.

He has authored two books – “Introduction to Parallel Processing” published by Prentice Hall and "Rule Based Expert Systems: A Practical Introduction" published by Narosa Publishers.

He is currently guiding four PhD students.